Dear Friends,

This time of year is a time of endings and new beginnings. This is the time every year, when a number of young parishioners reach the completion of a particular stage of education in their lives, and they graduate from school. From grade schools, high schools, colleges, trade schools, med schools and others, many individuals go walking down aisles of churches, halls, and stadiums, inside and out, in celebration of the education and/or program they have completed and are now moving on to the next stage in their lives. Congratulations and good wishes are rightfully in order. Let us bid congratulations to this year's graduates who are our fellow parishioners and members of our families! Often what comes with graduation is a mix of feelings that includes a sense of satisfaction for what has been completed, excitement and some anxiety for what is to come, some sadness for what once was, and hopefully there is always much gratitude for all that was received when, if not for God's good blessings, would never have been ours to experience at all. In addition to offering congratulations to the graduates, we must always be sure to offer thanks: thanks to God, to parents, to teachers, administrators, and school staffs who make those moments of graduation possible for each one of us throughout the stages of our lives.

With the initiative of All Things New, we as an Archdiocese, the local Church of Saint Louis, have been growing in the awareness and value for us as parish communities to share efforts, experiences, and resources in living out our mutual call as missionary disciples for the Lord. Our two parishes, Annunciation and Our Lady of Providence, have been blessed with the foresight and wisdom for more than 12 years to see the benefits, in addition to the need, of working together as mutual, fellow disciples of Christ. Most notably our sharing of efforts and resources began with the retreat ministry program ACTS, and then along with our neighboring parishes of St. Michael the Archangel and Seven Holy Founders (which now includes St. John Paul II), the formation of Holy Cross Academy. Sharing these ministries together allowed us the opportunities to do well together what we could not do standing apart. Since then, we have seen other ministries of our two parishes greatly benefit from working together. This includes PSR, CYC sports, Youth Group, the recent formation of HCA Scouts, and, in January, a shared Parish Council and Advisory Council who are to assist me and Fr. Paul as your pastor and senior associate pastor in leading our two communities with one vision.

Beginning with the new school year, the parishes of HCA will be strengthening our mutual efforts and resources with PSR. While for the past eight years, Saint Michael the Archangel and the former Saint John Paul II have been joining Annunciation and Seven Holy Founders, respectively, for PSR, this fall Our Lady of Providence will also join with them, and together we will offer one PSR program held at two parish sites. Seven Holy Founders will have PSR on Monday nights and Annunciation will have PSR on Wednesday nights for the children of our parishes and families. This united effort and sharing of resources will afford us the opportunity to offer catechesis in the classroom for our children, but additionally faith formation for our families. With this new beginning comes a change, particularly for our children, families, and our catechists of OLP. As mentioned above, with such change comes along mixed feelings. With change comes some sadness, but hopefully more satisfaction, gratitude, and hope for more good to come.

There will be more information to come regarding PSR, but for now it's a time for me and all of us to say, THANK YOU.

Thank you, first and foremost, to Peggy Krupp, who has given 35 years of service to our children and families as a PSR catechist and Director of our fine program at OLP! She has served as a witness of what it is to be as a missionary disciple for our Lord. Not only has she nurtured her own life of faith by participating in the Eucharistic celebration on the Lord's Day each week, but she has selflessly served our OLP community as the Director of PSR, and a regular cantor on Sundays among other things, through the years. Please join me in thanking her for her dedicated service to our parish. Additionally, there are dedicated parishioners who have also served our OLP parish in the ministry of PSR for many years, and without them, we could never have had the program of PSR that we have been blessed to have these years. Please join me in thanking all of them who served in this ministry this year namely, Donna Catanzaro, Martha Duchild, Cecilia George, Nick Matrisotto, Kathy Hensler, Linda Wingbermuehle, and Melissa Catalano. May you know of our deep gratitude for all of you.

Father Mike

Alternatively, you can donate through the Archdiocese of St. Louis using your credit card. Please note that the system charges a small fee for this service to Annunciation. Or you can drop your donation in the mail slot at the bottom of the front door of the rectory. You can learn more at <https://www.goannunciation.com/annunciation-online-donations.html>. And “Thank You” to all our parishioners who have been doing one of the methods above to continue to support Annunciation.
